

George Green

Name	George Green
Professional Occupation	Professor of American Economic History
Institution	University of Minnesota
Website	http://www.hist.umn.edu/people/profile.php?UID=green007
Short Description	George Green is professor of history at the University of Minnesota. He specializes in American business history. Green testified solely in the case brought by state attorney general Hubert Humphrey III of Minnesota against the tobacco industry seeking damages for smoking-related health care costs in the state of Minnesota.
Education	Ph.D.
Major Fields	History of the medical science in the twentieth century in American context
Major Publications	Finance and Economic Development in the Old South: Louisiana Banking, 1804-1861 (1972), American Business History (1981), The Business of Wellness: The Health Insurance Industry's Response to Public Health Campaigns, 1960-1990 (1999)
Number of Cases	1

Case <sup>1</sup>	Year	Manner of Involvement
1. Minnesota v. Philip Morris	1997	Deposition and Testimony

<sup>1</sup> Information on the cases is based on Proctor, Robert. 2012. Golden Holocaust: Origins of the Cigarette Catastrophe and the Case for Abolition. Berkeley: University of California Press, 461. & The following online databases: <http://legacy.library.ucsf.edu>, <http://tobaccodocuments.org>, <http://lawschool.courtroomview.com/experts>, & Westlaw.