

Todd Savitt

Name	Todd Savitt
Professional Occupation	Professor of History
Institution	East Carolina University
Website	http://www.ecu.edu/cs-dhs/medhum/savitt.cfm
Short Description	Todd Savitt is a historian of medicine with a particular interest in African-American medical history. He received his BA from Colgate University (1965), attended the University of Rochester School of Medicine (1965-1968), and earned his MA (1970) and Ph.D. (1975) in history from the University of Virginia. After teaching at the University of Florida College of Medicine (1976-1982) he joined the Department of Bioethics and Interdisciplinary Studies at The Brody School of Medicine, East Carolina University where he teaches history of medicine, literature and medicine, social and cultural issues in medical practice, and medical ethics. Savitt is also Assistant Dean for Diversity at BSOM (since January 2011).
Education	Ph.D.
Major Fields	African-American medical history Medical history of the American South and West
Major Publications	Medicine and Slavery: The Diseases and Health Care of Blacks in Antebellum Virginia (2002), Race and Medicine in Nineteenth- and Early-Twentieth-Century America (2007)
Number of Cases	1

Case ¹	Year	Manner of Involvement
1. Ierardi v. Lorillard	1991	Expert Report Submitted

¹ Information on the cases is based on Proctor, Robert. 2012. Golden Holocaust: Origins of the Cigarette Catastrophe and the Case for Abolition. Berkeley: University of California Press, 463. & The following online databases: <http://legacy.library.ucsf.edu>, <http://tobaccodocuments.org>, <http://lawschool.courtroomview.com/experts>, & Westlaw.